Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) Rebate News

Thanks to the generosity of the parishioners of the Parish of the Holy Spirit, we recently received our first ACA rebate (for 2020) from the Diocese of Yakima. The rebate was in the amount of $30,686 and that's just the first installment! Rebates are given to parishes when the amount of the assigned ACA goal has been exceeded by paid pledges. These rebate funds are available for our own parish's use now—to keep our many ministries ongoing and thriving.

A note for your consideration: If you haven't made a pledge to this year's Annual Catholic Appeal, now is a great time to do so. Why? Because every dollar you pledge now WILL COME BACK—100%—to the Parish of the Holy Spirit! You may make a pledge or a one-time gift to the ACA at www.yakimadiocese.org [See the "Donate Now" tab on the right hand side of the web page.]

Prayer to Overcome Racism

Mary, friend and Mother to all, through your Son, God has found a way to unite himself to every human being, called to be one people, sisters and brothers to each other.

We ask for your help in calling on your Son, seeking forgiveness for the times when we have failed to love and respect one another.

We ask for your help in obtaining from your Son the grace we need to overcome the evil of racism and to build a just society.

We ask for your help in following your Son, so that prejudice and animosity will no longer infect our minds or hearts but will be replaced with a love that respects the dignity of each person.

Mother of the Church,
the Spirit of your Son Jesus
warms our hearts: pray for us. Amen.

Our Outdoor Sunday Masses: Too Hot for 5:00 P.M.

With afternoon temperatures now in the mid 90s and sometimes exceeding 100°F, it is too dangerous to continue our 5:00 p.m. Sunday evening Mass outdoors. This decision is being made out of concern for your physical and spiritual health. If you're like me, you just can't pray well when you're too hot.

And so the following schedule for our weekend Masses will remain in effect until further notice:

Saturday evening 4:00 p.m. Non-public Vigil Mass

[This will be our live-streamed weekend Mass, which may be viewed live or watched at any time on Saturday evening (after 6:00 p.m.) or Sunday on our Facebook page.]

Sunday morning 9:30 a.m. Public Outdoor Mass (Sign-Ups required)

Sunday morning 11:00 a.m. Public Outdoor Mass (Sign-Ups required)

Let's continue to pray for cooler temperatures on the weekends, and for permission to resume our public Masses inside the church. Thanks for your willingness to adapt and improvise given the present situation with COVID-19.

The Search: Finding the Meaning of Life

This seven-episode series hosted by Chris Stefanick explores the deepest questions of the human heart—Why am I here? What's life all about? What happens when we die?—and guides you through the great big story of everything as artists, astrophysicists, psychologists, neuroscientists, chemists, and professors point to one big conclusion: Jesus Christ and the Catholic Church. What do you seek? What is the journey in between the event we call "birth" and the one we call "death"? Is the journey taking you somewhere, or are you leading yourself to some kind of destination—a destination that could extend beyond your last breath? What do you want from your life during the in between? The questions are there. And the answers are too.

MASS TRANSIT CARD

August 2, 2020

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isaiah 55:1-3 ♦ Romans 8:35, 37-39 ★ Matthew 14:13-21

“Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds.” —Matt. 14:19

When a family welcomes a new baby into their home, one of the nicest things we can do is bring a meal to them so the new parents can rest and care for the baby instead of having to cook. If your parent makes a meal and sends you to deliver it, you are the lucky one to get a big “Thank You,” even though it was your parent who did all the work.

Today’s Gospel tells of a time when Jesus provided a meal for thousands of hungry people using only a few pieces of bread and some fish. He miraculously multiplied the food, but then he gave it to the disciples to pass on to the people. During mass, when we receive the Body and Blood of Jesus in Holy Communion, Jesus gives us the power to pass on his message of love to everyone we meet. It’s not we who make this happen, but Christ in us.

Dear Jesus, please help me to pass on your love to all those I meet this week.

What is something that is precious to you that would be hard to give up so that others could have some too? Remember, with God’s help, even this is possible!

Answer the following questions together after Mass:

What Mass did you attend this week? _____

What color were the priest’s vestments? _____

What was one new insight the homily gave you?

Was there something special you noticed at Mass today?

A Free Meal, but with Demands

When God invites you to a meal, you never have to pay. It might be free, but it does have its demands. In fact, you are expected to open yourself to a total transformation. In the first reading, Isaiah mentions the renewal of an everlasting covenant. Perhaps a small dinner fee might be easier to handle.

This reading is quite tender. The needy are invited to a meal of grain, wine, and milk. Their neediness might explain why the meal is free. The invitation is magnanimous: “Come to me...that you may have life” (Isaiah 55:3). The Gospel story of the multiplication of the fishes and loaves reveals the same magnanimity. Jesus feeds all those who have followed him, no questions asked. This story follows a long tradition of miraculous feedings, which include the manna in the wilderness (Exodus 16) and Elisha multiplying bread (2 Kings 4:42-44). It’s natural to wonder just how that bread and those fish were able to satisfy so many, but there is another aspect of the story that should not be overlooked. The words, “He said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples” (Matthew 14:19) will appear again in the account of the Last Supper (Matthew 26:26). Though this was the ritual performed at the daily Jewish meal, the eucharistic allusion is unmistakable.

Perhaps it is the psalm response that throws light on the primary focus of the readings. There the graciousness and kindness of the Lord are acclaimed: “You open wide your hand / and satisfy the desire of every living thing” (Psalm 145:16).

—Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

FOR Reflection

- ★ Think of the good things in your life that have been given to you free of charge. How grateful are you?
- ★ Think of the times God has used you to bless others. How grateful are you for this?

Dear Padre,

Recently a visiting priest went completely off script during the eucharistic prayer at Mass. Is this allowed?

The eucharistic prayer is the summit of the entire Mass, culminating in what it means for the Church to celebrate the Eucharist. The Roman Missal offers ten options in English: Eucharistic Prayers 1, 2, 3, and 4; two for reconciliation; and four for various needs. Also, an additional three are available for Masses with children.

Not all of these options appear regularly in missalettes.

In exercising his office of celebrant, the priest is allowed to offer brief explanations, such as before the preface to the eucharistic prayer, but never during the prayer itself (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 31).

In general, “the Priest will remember that he is the servant of the Sacred Liturgy and that he himself is not permitted, on his own initiative, to add, to remove, or to change anything in the celebration of Mass” (GIRM 24). The mystery of the Mass “is too great for anyone to permit himself to treat it according to his own whim, so that its sacredness and its universal ordering would be obscured” (Redemptionis Sacramentum, 11).

Overall, presiders desire a meaningful ritual experience for those hungering and thirsting for holiness to encounter the living presence of Christ. If some actions and proclamations by presiders appear misguided, they’re seldom due to a lack of genuine pastoral care.

A WORD FROM Pope Francis

Obedient to Jesus' commands, the Church organized the eucharistic liturgy into moments which correspond to the words and the actions performed by him on the eve of his passion....In the eucharistic prayer, we give thanks to God for the whole work of redemption, and the offerings become the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ.
