Special Plenary Indulgence:

On March 20, 2020 the Apostolic Penitentiary at the Vatican in Rome issued a decree granting plenary indulgences to “the faithful suffering from the COVID19 virus, as well as to healthcare workers, family members and all those who in any capacity, including through prayer, care for them.”

The faithful who read the Holy Scriptures for half an hour, or recite the Holy Rosary, or pray the Way of the Cross, or recite the Chaplet of Divine Mercy while praying for an end to the pandemic will be granted a plenary indulgence.

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, an indulgence is “a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven.” Indulgences are either partial or plenary. Plenary indulgences remove all of the temporal punishment due to the sins we have committed.

It’s time for the 2020 Census. To participate, visit online at 2020census.gov or call toll-free 844-330-2020, or return the paper questionnaire if your household received one. Census data affect planning and funding for health clinics and highways, fire departments and disaster response, education programs, transportation funding and much more. Participating in the census is another way that we, as Catholics, exercise faithful citizenship.

Economic Relief for Our Parish Due to COVID-19:

These are stressful economic times for all of us—individuals, families, and businesses large and small; including the Parish of the Holy Spirit. I want to let everyone know that we (the Parish) have applied for all of the economic relief grants that are available to us at this time; both from the Federal Government and from Catholic Charities and the Diocese of Yakima. They include ...

The COVID-19 Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL)—which is an emergency program of the Small Business Administration, which offers small businesses (like ours) grants up to $10,000.

The Paycheck Protection Program (PPP)—which is also a program of the Small Business Administration, which offers 2½ months of payroll protection to small businesses who keep all of their employees hired during this time of pandemic.

Catholic Relief Services Rice Bowl Grant—which offers grants up to $1,000 to parishes to assist with local outreach efforts to those in immediate need (of food, clothing, utilities, etc.).

Catholic Charities Light of Hope Grant—which offers grants up to $1,000 to parishes to assist those who are affected economically by the COVID-19 virus.

Diocese of Yakima Communications Grant—which offers grants up to $500 to parishes to provide technology designed to keep parishioners engaged with the spiritual life; particularly when our physical churches need to remain closed. We have received this grant already ... in the full amount! We are using it to provide our live-streaming services of Masses and other devotions, and to engage with our parishioners through Flocknotes, our parish website, Zoom meetings, and other forms of social media.

Fr. Michael

The Diocese of Yakima is teaming up with Catholic Charities to help those in our diocese who are most affected by the Coronavirus by creating the Light of Hope Fund. 100% will go to those impacted by this pandemic. Donations will be matched up to $25,000. Select Light of Hope Fund at <https://bit.ly/3bhvJ98> or mail donations to Light of Hope Fund, Catholic Charities, 5301-E Tieton Drive, Suite C, Yakima, WA 98908.

We prayed, fasted and gave alms—and now we celebrate Easter joy! Our Lenten journey with CRS Rice Bowl challenges us as we encounter our Risen Lord to bring the hope of Resurrection to a world in need. Give online at <https://giving.parishsoft.com/app/giving/holy7409270>. Select “Special Collection” on the fund drop-down menu, and then select “Rice Bowl” in the subfund drop-down menu. You may also mail a donation to the parish office or return your Rice Bowl when the church reopens. Thank you.

The Top 12 Movies That Are Must Watches for Every Catholic

By Andrew Fowler [4/13/2020]

With movie theaters shutting down across the country to prevent the spread of the coronavirus pandemic, people are turning to streaming platforms to occupy their time during social distancing. Make the most of your time by watching something that will not only entertain but lift your mind and heart to something higher.

Here’s a list of quality films that are perfect to engage Catholics in thoughtful reflection.

A Man for All Seasons

St. Thomas More was awesome, in the truest sense of the word. He held to his faith and conscience and refused to declare Henry VIII as head of the Church of England, even though he knew he would be executed for it.

This film won several Academy Awards including Best Picture, Best Director and Best Actor. Plus, it has an all-star cast with Orson Welles, Robert Shaw (or Quint from Jaws) and John Hurt (who holds the record for most on-screen deaths).

Judgment at Nuremberg

This Best Picture-nominated film centers on a fictional military tribunal and offers a glimpse at what happened to Nazis after World War II and their role in the Holocaust. Spencer Tracy leads an all-star cast including Burt Lancaster, Montgomery Clift, Judy Garland and William Shatner.

The movie is also the first time Nazi concentration camp footage was used in a commercial film. Judgment at Nuremberg explores why we must value every single human life.

On the Waterfront

If Marlon Brando’s stunning performance doesn’t sell you, this Best-Picture winner tells the story of an uneducated former boxer who stands up against corrupt union bosses who have unmitigated power. Is it anti-Communist? Yes. Does it include pro-Catholic teachings? Yes. Plus, it features one of the greatest lines in movie history. You’ll know it when you get to it.

Henry V

This film adaptation of the Shakespeare play deals with themes of war and peace, brotherhood and leadership, manipulation and trust. But it’s also an underdog story, as the British troops were outnumbered 5 to 1 against the French at the real, historic battle. And here is a future trivia answer for you: HBO’s “Band of Brothers” gets its name from the Henry V line “We few, we happy few. We band of brothers.”

The Top 12 Movies That Are Must Watches for Every Catholic

By Andrew Fowler [4/13/2020]

The Mission

Robert De Niro stars in this movie about a Jesuit missionary evangelizing the native people of 18th-century South America. It was nominated for seven Oscars and won the Palm d'Or award at the Cannes Film Festival.

We Were Soldiers

Although violent, the battle scenes are accurate portrayals of the events that changed the course of the Vietnam War. The movie, starring by Mel Gibson, shows the men who dedicated and sacrificed their lives for God, country and their brothers.

Liberating a Continent

St. John Paul II's trip to Poland in 1978 brought hope to a continent split by the Soviet Union's "Iron Curtain." It's a story of real people, real lives, real consequences and the real power of prayer.

For Greater Glory

In the 1920s, Mexican Catholics were persecuted by their government, forcing them to fight for their lives and the right to practice their faith. Many were martyred during the conflict — including six Knights who were later canonized. The film's theme of religious liberty remains powerful as Christians are still persecuted throughout the world today.

Shane

Dealing with themes of heroism, redemption and justice, the film centers on a former gunslinger who tries to help a family of farmers harassed by cattle ranchers who have hired their own gunfighter. Shane is a classic film, listed number 45 on AFI's 100 Years ... 100 Movies list.

Michael Collins

First he played Holocaust hero, Oskar Schindler. Then he played Irish hero, Michael Collins. Liam Neeson stars in this biopic about the Irish revolutionary, soldier and politician who struggled for Ireland's independence from the United Kingdom in the early 20th century. It was nominated for two Academy Awards (cinematography and score), and Neeson and the film won top prizes at the Venice Film Festival.

Katyń

If you're looking for a foreign film, put Katyń at the top of your list. Nominated for Best Foreign Language Film at the 80th Academy Awards, it tells the story of Soviet atrocities against the Polish during the Second World War — including a mass execution and its cover-up. Although the characters are fictional, the Soviet's actions are not.

Becket

Peter O'Toole and Richard Burton star in this classic film about the disintegrating relationship between King Henry II and St. Thomas Becket due to the latter's commitment to the Catholic Church. Becket received 11 Oscar nominations, including Best Picture and two Best Actor nominations. (Although O'Toole and Burton didn't win, making it a combined 14 times they were nominated for acting but never won.)

STEWARDSHIP: Jesus meets the need of every disciple. To the fearful in the upper room, He speaks words of peace. To doubting Thomas, He provides tangible proof of his resurrection. What do I need to become His disciple? What do I have that might meet someone else's need?

It has long been a Catholic understanding that when circumstances prevent one from receiving Holy Communion, it is possible to make an Act of Spiritual Communion, which is a source of grace. Spiritual Communion is an ardent desire to receive Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and lovingly embrace him at a time when one cannot receive Him in sacramental Communion. The most common reason for making an Act of Spiritual Communion is when a person cannot attend Mass. Acts of Spiritual Communion increase our desire to receive sacramental Communion and help us avoid the sins that would make us unable to receive Holy Communion worthily.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Posted by the Archdiocese of New York, retrieved from the USCCB website, <http://www.usccb.org/> March 23, 2020

When the faithful find themselves in the painful impossibility of receiving sacramental absolution in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, it should be remembered that perfect contrition, coming from their love of God above all things, and expressed by a sincere request for forgiveness, may be directed to Almighty God. An Act of Perfect Contrition is efficacious for the forgiveness of all sins. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church explains, however, the penitent must make a firm resolve to formally confess any grave sins they have committed—in a timely manner—in the Sacrament of Penance (see CCC no. 1452).

An Act of Perfect Contrition

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you, Lord. I truly love you above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy.

Second Sunday of Easter
(Sunday of Divine Mercy) (A)

Acts 2:42-47

1 Pt 1:3-9

Jn 20:19-31

I Doubt It

Skepticism is a characteristic of a critical mind. Some claims are just too fantastic to trust: no salve can relieve you of all pain; no investment is certain to double your money; no politician can keep all promises; no one comes back from the dead. Who of us can fault Thomas for his initial skepticism?

Thomas has been known through history as “the doubter.” However, he might be considered the patron saint of all of us. Because of his absence when Jesus stood in the midst of the community, Thomas was expected to believe on the word of others. Like Thomas, we are torn between believing because of an experience of Jesus, and believing on the word of others. We all would prefer a direct, profound experience. However, that’s not what we’re offered.

But within the community we can indirectly experience Jesus—his goodness, his unselfish service to others, his desire to bring people together in peace and harmony. The first reading provides a glimpse of such a believing community devoted to “the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of the bread and to the prayers” (Acts 2:42). Like our patron Thomas, we might be skeptical at first, but it is within a family or community of kindness and generosity that we can have our own experience of the risen Jesus.

—Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

FOR Reflection

- * Where in your family do you experience devotion to others, forgiveness, and courage? Where do you bring these attitudes?
- * How might you strengthen the bonds of your community so that others can recognize the presence of the risen Jesus?

Jesus said to [Thomas],
“Have you come to believe
because you have seen me?
Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.”

JOHN 20:29

NEW AFRICA SHUTTERSTOCK

Dear Padre,

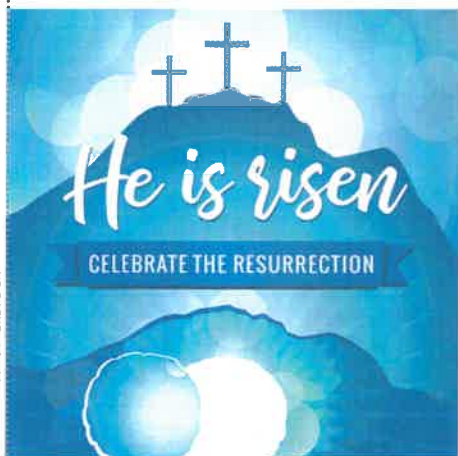

A friend of mine always makes such a big deal of the time after Easter. What is this Easter season all about?

These days and weeks after Easter are indeed significant. We Christians are an Easter people. The resurrection is the cornerstone of our faith. Without the belief that Christ conquered death and our hope that we will share in that same victory over the grave, our faith is pointless. We celebrate with great fanfare that we are a redeemed people in Jesus Christ.

Every year our forty-day Lenten preparation of fasting and penance leads us to the feasting and joy of the fifty days of Easter. This unbelievable news that the risen Christ is in our midst draws us into a festival that cannot be contained in a single day. “The fifty days from Sunday of the Resurrection to Pentecost Sunday are celebrated in joy and exultation as one feast day, indeed as one ‘great Sunday’” (The Roman Missal, “Universal Norms on the Liturgical Year and Calendar,” 22).

Part of the challenge of Easter is learning again how to celebrate a fifty-day feast. Most Catholics do not think of Easter as an extended feast. We tend to see Easter, the ascension, and Pentecost as three separate, independent feast days, each with its own themes. The truth of the matter is that they are all part and parcel of the other, intertwined and borne of the same glorious fact of Christ’s resurrection. This is a perfect time to remind ourselves of that joyous and significant connection.

WORD FROM Pope Francis

To us also, on this Sunday, which St. John Paul II wished to dedicate to divine mercy, the Lord shows us, through the Gospel, his wounds. They are wounds of mercy... Jesus invites us to behold these wounds, to touch them as Thomas did, to heal our lack of belief. Above all, he invites us to enter into the mystery of these wounds, which is the mystery of his merciful love.
